SNOW CRAB

Harvested in the pure currents of icy arctic waters

Harvested from the icy water of the Northern Atlantic and Pacific, Keyport's snow crab is sweet and flavorful and just simply delicious. Snow crab has made a name for itself as a fantastic crab at a great value making it one of today's favorite choices for both restaurants and consumers. Keyport regularly stocks Alaskan Bairdi and Opilio as well as Norwegian & Canadian Opilio.

We guarantee first rate product caught using the best methods available to minimize by-catch and protect the ecosystem. Backed by decades of experience we manage our process according to size, sex and season and carefully select the right method and tools for the job to minimize our impact and ensure the purest, highest quality, catch for you.
