GOLDEN KING CRAB

Alaska Golden King Crab

Keyport's Golden King Crab is harvested in the pure currents of icy, arctic waters of the Bering Sea by Keyport's direct resource and vessel partnerships in Alaska. Keyport takes great pride in offering wild-caught Alaska Golden King Crab as we partner with communities bordering the Bering Sea to ensure that the trade is fair and the local communities continue to thrive.

Called "Golden" due to their shell color, Golden King crab are typically slightly smaller than Red King Crab. Golden King Crab has a subtle, sweet flavor enjoyed by crab enthusiasts around the world.

Backed by decades of experience, Keyport's Golden King crab is sustainably harvested and is Certified by the Alaska Seafood Marketing Institute (ASMI) Responsible Fisheries Management (RFM) Program. Every pound of Keyport's Golden King Crab is also accounted for and tracked by the State of Alaska.
